

6516206345.txt

I believe that the satellite radio industry should not have any restrictions. As a frequent traveler it is refreshing to have the same signal without "searching" for a channel. I find the weather and news reports to be very helpful. If I am paying for a service, why would you want to restrict the content?
Thank you,

Rick Savage